THE GRUNCH STREET ARSON CASE.—CONFESSION OF
TWO OF THE PRISONERS.
The three young men, named John Schnepf, Emile Bergur and William M. Johnson, arrested at the instance of Fire Marshal Balcer for the witfully firing of the frame dwelling house No. 146 Church street, were on Monday morning taken before Justice Weish, who committed morning, while the accused parties were in the station house, John Schnepf and Emile Bergur made the following house, John Schnepf and Emble Bergur made the following confession to the Marshal:—

CON ESSION OF SCHNETT.

I know William M. Johnson set tire to the house. I saw him strike the match; then I came down stairs; Johnson followed, and said when he came down, the shanty's on tire, there was a man on the floor apparently asleep. I could see him by the light of the match. I know that vag and mon. Or "bummers," as they are called, were in the habit of sleeping in this place. I tried to prevent Johnson from setting fire to the house. Three days before I, Emile and Johnson were in this house; in the atternoon Johnson took a bunch of slavings and pushed them into a hole under the floor, head of the stairs. He then took a match and set tree to the shavings. I ran down stairs, then I went back again and pulled out the shavings and put out the fire.

Entity BRRITE'S CONFESSION.

I know that William M. Johnson set fire to the house. On Saturday afternoon at about three o'clock I and sohnson went into this house; we went up stairs together. I saw Johnson put a lot of shavings into a hole under the floor, head of the stair, he wanted me to get some sticks to put into this hole. I told him I would not do it, that I would wash my hands of the scrape; I told him he would surely be found out if he set it on fire. I went down stairs, left Johnson alone. I went around the corner and waited; Johnson soon after came out. I had been standing there about three minutes, when a bey called John. Casy, living in West strondway, came up to Johnson and said there was sancke in that building. I saw sonice, rate to the coal yard, got a bucket of water and went up stairs to throw it on the fire. Johnson took the bucket, upset it, would not let me throw it on the fire, saying, "Oh let it burn." I got some dirty water and succeeded in throwing that on the fire, and put it out. On the day before this, I, John Schaepf, and Johnson took a match and set fire to some shavings; I and Schnepf stamped on them and put out to fire would mone to tell the Ma

Mr. Delton immediately turned upon his assailant, and followed him down as far as Fireman's Hall, where he was again set upon, this time by the entire three and quite a scuille ensued, when one of the party drew a pistol and fired at Daton, fortunately misting him, and lodging in the house of Hook and Ladder Company No. 6. There were several of the members of the latter company seiting in their house at the time, and it was a great wender that some of them were not killed. As soon as the shot was fired several of Mr. Dation's friends came to his rescue, and before the other party could get away they were pretty roughly handled. Currer was terribly cut about the head and face. Officer Parsons, of the Eighth ward, and officer Davis, of the Fourteenth ward, scon came up and arrested Curren, and locked him op in the Eighth ward station house. The others managed to make their escape. Curren will be taken before a magistrate this morning and fully committed on complaint of Mr. Datton.

CAPTURE OF A DESPERATE BURGLAR. -Patrick Conway, a desperate looking fellow, was taken into custedy on Sun-day night by policeman Greighton, of the Fourth precinct, on charge of burglary and felonious assault. The prisoner, it is alieged, broke into the premises of Frank Hughes, No 103 Cherry street, on the 29th of February last, and stole therefrom $550 in bank bills and gold coin. He stole therefrom $550 in bank bills and gold coin. He managed to clude the vigilance of the police ever since the night of the burglary, and it was not until Sunday that the officers were able to secure him. When discovered by the police, Conway drew a large bowie kaife from his person, and attempted to take Creighton's life, but the latter was too active for the follow, and after a short struggle, the prisoner was forced to succurab. The accused is also charged with having stabled fames Donovan, of No 53 Cherry street, with the bowie knife previously alluded to, cutting him severely across the arm. Justice Kelly committed the prisoner on two charges of assault and battery, besides the burglary complaint.

ORE MORE UNFORTUNATE -A SAP CASE. - Landelle Hoch-nic, an interesting looking girl, about nineteen years of in Bayard street, on Sunday night, by swallowing a dose of laudanum. The Sixth precinct pilics were duly apprised of the facts, and bastened with the unfortunate girl to the New York Hospital. Through the exertions of Dr. Harris the patient was roused from the siumber into which she had fallee, and in an hour or so was sufficiently recovered to relate the tale of hor wrongs. After giving a state meet of her early history she referred to the cause which impelled her to the councission of the reah act. She had, unfortunately, fallen a victim to the seducer's wiles, and, abandoned by her lover, her relations and friends, she knew not where to obtain case of mind or consolation save in the cold embrace of death itself. Resolved on self-destruction, she purchased an onnee of laudanum at a neighboring druggist's, and on retiring to hed she swallowed the entire draught, and was soon under the influence of the deadly narcotic. MORTON FAISCHILD, Brevet Major First regiment New York Volunteers.

Died 3d August, 1850 Aged 6fty-four years.

The deceased was dressed in his uniform, and above his coills were crossed the two tattered ensigns which his regiment had borne through many a stormy battle-field in Mexico. Two members of the New York Volunteers—his compatitots in arms—mounted guard over his remains while they remained at the City Hall.

At two o'clock the friends and relatives of the deceased were admitted to the room, and Rev. Mr. Stryker commenced the funeral services by delivering an effective discourse, taking for the text the fifth chapter of St. John.

After which the Rev. Dr. Armitage pronounced a glowing culogy upon the character of the deceased, and sketched in brief his connection with the late war. The services were concluded with an affecting prayer by the latter gentleman.

The procession was then formed, and the coffin borne to the insare, which was appropriately plumed. The cortege moved off from the City Halt by the east gate, and procreeded through Chambers street to Broadway, and thence to the South ferry and Greenwood Cemetery, in the fellowing order:—

PINGWORM: RINGWORM: RINGWORMS:

Dr. HOLLOWAY: DEAR Sim—I beg to inform you of the following facts.—Three of my children took ringworm of the facts wireless type on their heads, and had it for three years. Their heads had to be shaved, repeatedly poulitized, and all kinds of medicines applied. I had four different physicisms during the three years. The last, Dr. Bulbley, combined them twelves meanly and applied for varieties of washes and medicines, but all of no avail. When the children's heads were in the very worst state, set that they were all in a complete fester with red sores and thick white matter, a kind friend recommended your contribution and Film and my wife tried them. After using flux worth the result was a complete cure and a beautiful head of hair. The cure was to solely owing to your medicines that I shall ever feel grainful to you. I had speat $500, and employed the best medical shall in the city, but all in vaile. You are welcome to use this in any way you may see best, together with my name and address.
